

Joseph Grove: Notes on the day after (the world didn't end on May 21st, 2011, but the day did)!

Autumn 36 x 48 x 2 inch oil on canvas by Joseph Grove
Pangaea/World Piece(was finalist at Tyndale Seminary first juried art show) 36 x 48 x2 inch oil on canvas by J.G. Sold to Austin Grant, Sony Animation Studios Walkabout 22x30" D.L. Stevenson & Sons Canadian made acrylics on Arches 300 lb. paper & original of Osmosis 24x36 oil on canvas (became 500 l.e.p. from Mahon graphics in Markham, Ontario* sold out) also ...
Starry Night idea concept/Ode to van Gogh work on paper to Saint George's Society Four Seasons Hotel, also hot Indian red marsh painting on paper in proper frame from Leo Kamen gallery 80 Spadina avenue <http://www.leokamengallery.com>
Double Honours B.A. in contemporary literature & philosophy from U of T The University of Toronto married Sari Grove in 1996 artist's collection: a Jack Shadbolt idea of a layered sunset in peanut butter layers of vertical colour framed in soft gold on paper under glass <http://www.flickr.com/photos/grovecanada/4281898035/> Joseph loves Jadzia his bengal cat/kitten fav.
& he likes B'Elanna too! <http://www.flickr.com/photos/grovecanada/4281893405/> when she growls at him
<http://www.flickr.com/photos/grovecanada/3890610492/> Here's a sketch Joseph did...another one went to the National Gallery of Canada through artmarketing.com on Bay street it was called "Space Ships" a 30x40" grey framed under plexiglass watercolour with gum arabic & oil pastels on architect's board from Currys...
Port Credit High School & Lorne Park High School before that, & football team equipment guy...

Joseph spoke at City Council in 2009 & helped to allow a 4 unit low income rental home housing complex's tenants to receive in principle 15 thousand dollars each as relocation monies, which one of them did take...
That's all I have to say for now since Joseph is pretty private & I'm not him exactly, signed Sari, the one on the computer right now...