Finances: The guild has $2022 in the bank

High Five!

- Thanks to High Prairie Quilt Shop for hosting our August meeting. We certainly filled their classroom space and then some. Based on the line waiting to check out, I think the shop was more than happy to host us!

This month's program

- Amy Gibson, sticherydickerydock.com, gave a paper piecing demo of her Sunny Days block.
- Color options include the original orange, yellow and white or substitute navy for the orange, mustard for the yellow, and low-volume whites for the white.

- We will have Secret Sisters. See Abby to sign up.

Tula Pink at Fancy Tiger

- The cost is $20 and guild members should receive a 10% discount.
- See the Fancy Tiger web site for details.

Swaps

- Thanks to Beccy for volunteering to be our new swap mama!
- 27 members participated in the charm pack swap.
- Julie Elliott won the month's swap basket.

Outreach

Future opportunities

- Sally reminded the group of the opportunity to be part of the live studio audience when The Quilt Show tapes on October 12. Taping begins at 7:00 a.m. and runs to 4:30 p.m. at the Comcast building in Littleton. You must register on The Quilt Show web site (it's free) and provide Sally with your username if you're interested in attending.
- The Golden Quilt Company will host a class with Kaffe Fassett on November 1 at the Golden Hotel. Kaffe will present his Glorious Color lecture and facilitate his Bright Squares one-day workshop. Cost is $225.

Unfortunately, as I type this, the class is filled. But see the shops web site if you want to be added to the wait list.
